Hi Ron,

I'd like to make a selfish pitch for us to wait until next week to go door-to-door. As I see it, there's no real emergency/urgency in going door-to-door this week, right before Christmas---both for staff and for residents. By waiting a few days, we'll be able to gauge the response we get from sending the fact sheet out/e-mailing residents this week and be more prepared to be in the field next week.

I realize this may not be an option and we'll support whatever is decided, but I'm asking anyway. :) I know that Dave and Trish (not sure about Rich and Ann, but I'll make this plea on their behalf as well!) have family plans on Friday that they would prefer not to give up. Thanks.
